

1

Welcome to the ESL Class

COMPETENCIES

Meeting and Introducing People

GRAMMAR

to be (am, is, are)
this/that; these/those
Indefinite Article
Singular and Plural Nouns

VOCABULARY

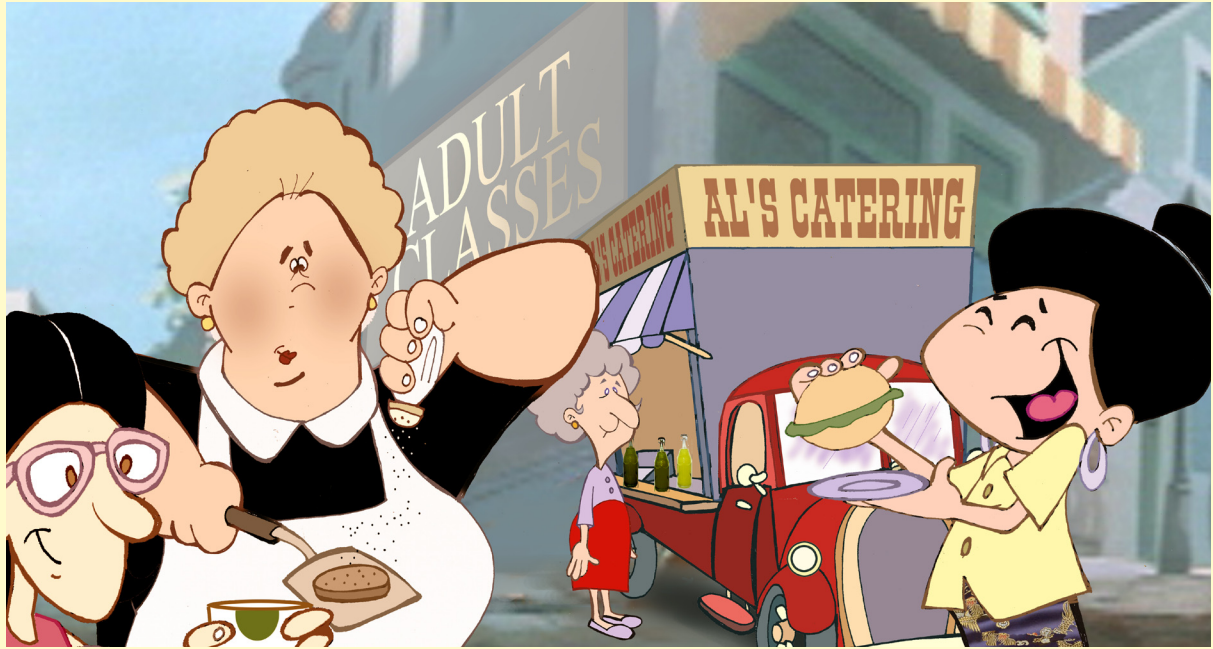

Classroom Items
Numbers (1-12)

PHONICS

Consonants

LISTEN

It's break time at an adult school. Sami Hamati and David Fernandez are at the catering truck.

David: Oops! Excuse me.

Sami: That's OK.

Caterer: Coffee?

Sami: Un-huh. How much is it?

Caterer: It's a dollar.

Sami: Here you are.

Caterer: What are those?

David: They're potato chips.
How much are they?

Caterer: They're seventy-five cents.

David: Here you are.

Caterer: And here's your change.

David: Thanks.

UNDERSTAND

Circle True or False

1. Coffee is one dollar at the catering truck.

True

False

2. It's break time at the adult school.

True

False

3. Potato chips are 35 cents.

True

False

4. The caterer is a student at the adult school.

True

False

5. "Un-huh" means "yes."

True

False

PAIR PRACTICE

Talk with another student about the pictures below.

Student 1: What's that?
 Student 2: It's
 Student 1: How much is it?
 Student 2: It's cents/dollars.
 Student 1: Here you are.
 Student 2: Thanks.

WHAT'S THAT?

IT'S COFFEE.

HOW MUCH IS IT?

IT'S SIXTY CENTS.

HERE YOU ARE.

THANKS.

coffee
1 dollar

lemon soda
75 cents

milk
60 cents

juice
90 cents

PAIR PRACTICE

Talk with another student about the pictures below.

Student 1: What are those?
 Student 2: They're Student 1: How much are they?
 Student 2: They're cents/dollars.
 Student 1: Here you are.
 Student 2: Thanks.

WHAT ARE THOSE?

THEY'RE COOKIES.

HOW MUCH ARE THEY?

THEY'RE FORTY-FIVE CENTS.

HERE YOU ARE.

THANKS.

cookies
45 cents

potato chips
50 cents

sandwiches
2 dollars

apples
65 cents

